IN THE FRONT ROW

HEADLINERS TONIGHT.

The Stage.

Dramatic Stock The Screen.Shod With Fire DixieA Temperamental Wife

LIVER MOROSCO'S splendid comedy success of the stage, and Nazimova's triumph of the screen, "The Brat," is the first offering of the Tom Casey players at the Hipp, starting an indefinite engage-yent this afternoon. Briefly, "The Brat," concerns a little chorus girlight that is down and out, is picked up by a noted author who is looking for local color to a new book that he is writing. He takes her to his mother's home, where for the first time in months "The Brat" knows what the comforts of home really are. As the days pass, there becomes evident in her a quaint philosophy and a wealth of good traits and affection which make themselves felt upon the following sorie was maded with his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed and that without remedy." The development of her character and the history of her love affair are told in Proceeding to the player of the response to the stage, and nazimatic and her the services at the Diamond street church Sunday were attended by large and interested audiences. At the even hing service the auditorium and Sunday school room were, packed and in the week end with Miss Louise Can Britania and wile to Ellis Austin a parcel of land on Lick Run in Windisposed for a few days. Miss Ethel Summers has been in disposed for a few days. Mrs. Delphia Smith of Ernshaw is the the funcral of her niece Mrs. Grace Holland Doolitile which took leaders Smith earlied which took and the funcral of her niece Mrs. Grace Holland Doolitile which took and the funcral of her niece Mrs. Grace Holland Doolitile which took and the funcral of her niece Mrs. Grace Holland Doolitile which took and the funcral of her niece Mrs. Grace Holland Doolitile which took and was based upon the following scripture: "He take being often reproyed had that without remedy." The certainty of punishment for sin was emphasized by the evangelist who was emphasized by the evangelist have expected the proposed for a few days. Mrs. Delphia Smith of Ernshaw is ill with influenza.

Miss Rtin Fairmont avenue.

Miss Ethel Summers has been i LIVER MOROSCO'S splendid

William Russell at Nelson.

A romantic love song of the plains, "Shod with Fire," backed up with a Jester comedy, "The Frame-Up," is the bill at the Nelson today.

Alice Brady Princess Star.

"The Trap" is the title of the premier offering at the Princess today.

"The Great Radium Mystery" is the second flash.

Dixie's Offering Clever.

Good workmanship is to be found in every feature of "A Temperamen-tal Wife," the First National release written and produced by John Emer-son and Anita Loos, with Constance Talmadge as the mercureal young woman whose attempt to teach her husband that she will not share his heart with any other woman ends in her learning that she has been kick-ing up a row for nothing, and fur-nishes the fun of the comedy. The authors of the scenario acknowledge their debt to "Information, Please," a stage play written by Jane Cowl and Jane Murfin. How much or how little material they took from the play does not alter the satisfactory result accomplished in the finished picture. The story, although treated in a light vein, is plausible and genuinely amusing. It is put together with skill, and there are no loose ends of plot visible at any time. The characters are human and the things they do are funny without being fool-It is possible to laugh at all the mishaps in the comedy and retain one's self respect while doing it. The entire production is marked by good taste and thorough understanding of its needs. Constance Talmadge and her support are successful in carrying out the spirit and fun of all the scenes, and there are frequent revela-tions of feminine nature that give the comedy something more than mere development of the author, and he living and a deep study of God's word and chedience to His laws. Too many development of her character and the history of her love affair are told in the balance of the story, with plenty of comedy lines that are rich in humans.

EAST SIDE

Here, and the living and a deep study of God's word and chedience to His laws. Too many people says the evangelist have set their standards of life from novels and magazines instead of from the Bible. Life is to a church. It is not a playhouse—it is a church. It is not a playhouse—it is a clarry reality A deep. playbouse—it is a stern reality. A deep spiritual interest was manifested and there were seven conversions. A large delegation of railroad men attended the service Wednesday evening The graded students of the East side schools are invited to attend the service. Seats will be reserved for them. On Thursday evening the moth-Service each evening at 7:30 o'clock All are invited.

From Harrisville,

Attorney S. O. Prunty and wife of Harrisville and the former's mother from Pullman, came here yesterday o see their brother and son Marshall Prunty, who is quite ill of pneumonia following influenza at the home of his sister Mrs. J. A. Long at 111 1-2 Diamond street. His mother will remain with him during his filness.

At Baptist Church. The evangelistic services at Palatine Baptist church will begin

R. E. Hudgins Confectionery, Ice Cream Sodas, Etc.

Also, Wall Paper Yes, we have it in stock. 315 Market Street. Phone 1126-J.

Wednesday evening at 7.39 o'clock fley, J. J. Cook, pastor of Mr. Calvary Baptist church at Charleston will be here and assist Rev. C. F. Eddy in these special services. Friday after ncoh at 3:15 childrens hour will be observed. An interesting and instructive film will be on hand and an enloyable hour is promised all children. Eli Daugherty and wife to Lola J. joyable hour is promised all children who attend.

Personals.

Denzel and Daie Steele of Haymond street spent Sunday with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge

William L. Matthews and wife to
William L. Matthews and wife to

Austin at Little Falls.

Miss Ruth Fisher of Morgantown district, $500.

Spent the week end with Miss Louise

C. B. Frum and wife to Ellis Austin

quite ill while there but is much bet-

Mrs. Ernest Walls is ill of pueu-monia at her home at Norwood. A trained nurse from Wheeling has been secured and is caring for her. Mrs. Ernest Walls is ill of pueusecured and is caring for her.

Mrs. C. C. Lawson and children who have been ill with influenza are all

One of the interesting developments of the war was the extensive use made of luminous paints for the dials of air plane instruments and other apparaers are invited to attend and the service will be especially adapted to them and their needs. tus: the paint being rendered luminous zinc suphide.

NELSON TO-DAY William Russell

'Shod With

A romantic love story of the plains. Also a Jester Comedy "The Frame Up"

Deeds filed for recording in the county clerk's office are as follows:
Eli Daugherty and wife to Lola A.
Morgan, land in first ward, $800.

C. B. Frum and wife to Ellis Austin

have at the Atissa addition, Fairmont, $580

T. B. Henderson, wife et al. to Tony at mont, $2,750.

Rosa A. Parker to Hugh W. Glass cock, a lot in Prickett addition, Fairmont, $600.

The body was taken to her Yormer home at Bradford, Pa., for burial accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. England of this city, the latter a sister of the deceased.

More and More People are drinking

NSTANT

Health value, a high standard of flavor and greater con-venience make the change popular-and

The Price Is The Same As Before The War

Sold by Grocers - Everywhere

INDEFINITE ENGAGEMENT

MONDAY FEB. 23rd

"THAT CLASSY STOCK CO." Tom Casey's

Popular Players MILDRED JEROME "The Littlest Leading Lady."

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. Oliver Morosco's Comedy Success

"The Brat" Thursday, Friday, Saturday "WITHIN THE LAW".

Matinee Daily 2:30-30c, 40c. Nights at 8:15-40c, 55c.

All Seats Reserved. Phone 1023

Mrs. Howard Wright, age 22, died on Thursday at St. Mary's Hospital Clarksburg, following a four weeks' of a complication of diseases. She is

The function of Filed for Record Woman Dies of Flu Buried This Afternoon

Woman Dies of Flu Buried This Afternoon

The function of Stivanus Shave a member of the Marion county court and was a prominent woman in the community in which she resided.

The function took place this afternoon at 2:30 o clock from the family residence and burial was made in the shaperty and wife to Lola A.

Mrs. Howard Wright, age 22, died on Thursday at St. Mary's Hospital trict, died on Saturday after an illness trict, died on Saturday after an i

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

"MORGAN AND HARMONY"

Republican Keynotes Sounded by Glasscock, Darst, Lilly, Hall, Northcott, White and Other Republican Leaders Who Favor Judge E. F. Morgan for Governor

Republican leaders in West Virginia, desirous of party harmony, and interested only in Republican success in the coming general election through the selection of candidates who will command the full party strength, will support Judge E. F. Morgan for the Republican nomination for Governor, irrespective of their former affiliations or political alignments.

Judge Morgan's upright character, his clean private life and his honorable public career are largely responsible for the unusual manifestation of public sentiment in the primary campaign he is now waging, typified in the date for Governor he would be invulnerable to attack.

These endorsements come from strong Republicans who have not always worked in harmony. Four years ago many of them were for Judge Ira E. Robinson. Others were for General A. A. Lilly. Today they are united behind Judge Morgan for the reason that they believe he is the man who will solidify the entire party and make victory easy. They have full confidence in the only promise he has made that he will give to all the people of the state a square deal.

From the ranks of those who supported Judge Robinson four years ago the Morgan candidacy has attracted the support of Elliott Northcott, who was associated with Judge Morgan on the Public Service Commission; National Committeeman Virgil L. Highland, of Clarksburg; Judge E. G. Rider, of Sutton, member of the Public Service Commission; Robert R. Bernheim of Welch, Secretary of the Public Service Commission; James S. Lakin, memweich, Secretary of the Public Service Commission; James S. Lakin, member of the State Board of Control; J. G. Bradley, President of the West Virginia Coal Association; M. Z. White, of Williamson, former Warden of the State Penitentiary; Jules A. Viquesney, of Belington, former State Game and Fish Warden; Dr. L. V. Guthrie, of the Huntington State Hospital; Edward G. Plerson, former Pardon Attorney; Amos Bright, of Sutton, and S. P. Smith, of Charleston, formerly with the State Banking Commissioner's office; Lee Ott, State Compensation Commissioner.

Ninety per cent of the Republicans in the State Capitol, all of whom were active in the support of Judge Robinson, are now supporting Judge

E. F. Morgan.

From the ranks of those Republicans who supported General Abe Lilly in 1916 the Morgan candidacy has attracted the support of Mayor Grant P. Hail, of Charleston; William McKell, of Fayette county; Col. T. E. Houston, of Elkhorn; Col. James Ellwood Jones, of McDowell; former Congressman James A. Hughes, of Cabell; Z. Taylor Vinson, of Huntington; Judge T. H. Lilly, of Hinton; Isaac T. Mann, of Mercer; Judge T. J. McGinnis, of Beckley, and others, including General Lilly himself, who says that a "considerable" majority of his supporters are for Judge Morgan.

Other prominent Republicans of Statewide acquaintance, such as for-siderable" majority of his supporters are for Judge Morgan.

Other prominent Republicans of Statewide acquaintance, such as former Governor W. E. Glasscock, of Morgantown; State Auditor John Sherman Darst; Charles W. Swisher, of Charleston; Chas. W. Dillon, former Tax Commissioner, of Fayetteville; C. L. Topping, Clerk of the House of Delegates; E. Leslie Long, former State Treasurer; Judge Frank Cox, of Morgantown, former member of the Supreme Court of Appeals; Judge Frank W. Nesbitt, of Wheeling, and Hugh Ike Shott and Mayor C. O. Stahman, of Bluefield, are loyally supporting Judge Morgan.

Here are extracts from letters and interviews voluntarily given in behalf of Judge Morgan by Republicans of prominence:

Hon. W. E. Glasscock, former Governor of West Virginia—"If I were asked to give some of my reasons for advocating the nomination of Judge Morgan for Governor, I would say:

"First, because I have known him ever since he commenced the practice of law and I know him to be honest and endowed with unusual ability,

"First, because I have known him ever since he commenced the practice of law and I know him to be honest and endowed with unusual ability, "Second, because as a lawyer and as Judge of the Intermediate Court of Marion County, and as a member of the Public Service Commission of West Virginia, he manifested learning, ability to think accurately and judge wisely and was always alert, painstaking, fair and courageous. "Third, because he is absolutely free of anything like deception, demagnerated to the second of the course of the process of the goguery or bigotry. "Fourth, because he is 100 per cent American and has no connections or interests which will prevent him, if nominated and elected Governor, from serving all of the interests of the State and all of the people, equally

"And I believe the Republicans of West Virginia are going to nominate and elect him oGvernor this year." Hon. John Sherman Darst, State Auditor-"The Governorship affords the greatest opportunity for service of any position in the State. I shall vote for Judge Morgan in the primary. I know he is a high-class Christian gentleman, a man of sound and mature judgment and good common sense. He is one who has come up, as most of us have, by self denial and hard work, knows what it is to off-bear on a saw mill and to work with his hands, knows by experience the needs of labor, also the needs of business, has the courage of his convictions and is not afraid. He will stand for a square deal for labor and for big and little business alike, and for justice and equality to all, special privilege to none."

cquality, to all, special privilege to none."

Hon. A. A. Lilly, former Attorney General—"Consideration for party welfare, certain victory in the next election and capable and efficient service in the Governor's office after he is elected are the motives which impel me give my vote and full support to Judge Morgan. Having been more or less politically active in recent years, it is a pleasure for me, when all other things are equal, to act in conformity with my friends. While there is some division between them, the considerable majority are loyally supporting Judge Morgan because they believe he will more nearly hamonize all elements of the party. I have been over a large portion of the southern end of the State, and I feel that Judge Morgan will carry a large and surprising vote in the down-state counties."

of the State, and I feel that Judge Morgan will carry a work in the down-state counties."

Hon M. Z. White, former Warden of the State Peniteutiary—"I was a member of the State Senate that passed the act creating the Public Service Commission and was highly pleased when Judge Morgan was placed on that Commission. He comes from an old and influential family in the interior of the State and his life and character is, like Caesar's wife, above suspicion. I pledge you my carnest efforts to bring about his success at the May primary, feeling sure his nomination will be one that all true Republicans will Grant P. Hall, Mayor of Charleston—"I am supporting Judge Morgan's candidacy for Governor because he is competent, clean and qualified. He is Republican who will command the full strength of the party in the elecpeople of the State an administration of their affairs tion and will give to the people of the State an administration of their affairs that will be honest, progressive and economical. He was born in West Virginia and knows thoroughly the needs and demands of his native State."

Hon. Elliott Northcott, former Member of Public Service Commission—"I am supporting Judge E. F. Morgan for Governor. My association with Judge Morgan on the Public Service Commission brought me in intimate touch with him and I know him to be capable, fearless and courageous. He will do his duty at all times, regardless of consequences to himself; he never shirked a duty and never will. He is a big, genial, affable man with whom it was a delightful pleasure to be associated. He is a Republican, whose party loyalty has never been questioned and who has given to the party and the people of West Virginia a full measure of service. He will make a great Governor."

Isaac T. Mann, Banker, of Bramwell—"I have decided that I will support Judge E. F. Morgan. I have reached this conclusion after giving first importance to the need of nominating a man who will not only appeal to the voters in the coming election, but one who when elected, will be of such independence of thought and action as will enable him to successfully meet and solve all problems that may be presented during his administration. In addition to this we must have a candidate who will go before the people absolutely free from any entanglements in the shape of pre-election promises either as to offices or policies made soley with a view to obtaining support, but also from any alliances with party factions or special business interests.

"I find upon investigation that Judge Morgan is a native West Vierinian."

"I find upon investigation that Judge Morgan is a native West Virginian of pioneer stock, and that his early life as a man who first labored that he night educate himself, made him acquainted with the needs of labor; that his record as an enlisted man in the Spanish-American war proves his retriction; that his carears a practicipal state of the process of the proc his record as an enlisted man in the Spanish-American war proves the patriotism; that his career as a practicing attorney, as a Judge on the bench and as a member and Chairman of the West Virginia Public Service Commission prove conclusively his sturdy independence, his ability as an executive and as a business man; that through it all his clean life as a citizen stamps him as worthy in every respect of this high honor."

Max Mathers, Chairman Monongalia Republican County Committee Max Mathers, Chairman Monongalia Republican County Committee
"Sentiment is almost unanimous in Monongalia for Judge Morgan. His acquaintanceship is large and the general recognition of his fitness and ability for the governorship has been the controlling factor in making him almost the unanimous favorite of Monongalia Republicans. Judge Morgan seems to be a harmony candidate, and I find an overwhelming majority of the men who supported Judge Robinson and General Lilly four years ago now fighting in double harness for Judge Morgan." now fighting in double harness for Judge Morgan."

John G. Hoffman, Tannery Owner and Business Man of Wheeling-"As a business man I believe Judge Morgan is that type of man who will give to the State an economical administration. The business people of the State want to put an end to waste and extravagance in both State and Nation. The business people of the state want to put an end to waste and extravagance in both State and Nation. tion. Tax burdens should be lifted from the people instead of multiplied.
West Virginia business men who want a strong man in the executive office, one who is not afraid and one who is not cotrolled by any special busines interest, should welcome the opportunity to supoprt a candidate like Judge

Judge Frank Cox, of Morgantown, former Member Supreme Court of Appeals—"I am gratified to see the announcement of Judge E. F. Morgan for Governor. I have watched his course as citizen, lawyer and judge, and consider him eminently qualified for the high office of Governor. I rate him as one of the strongest and most conscientious men of the State."

Judge Frank W. Nesbitt, of Wheeling—"I do not know of any man in the ranks of our party whom I would rather see at the head of affairs in West Virginia than yourself. I am sure that if elected you will deal not only fairly and honestly, but also firmly, with all classes and conditions among out people, and that you will be free from any entangling alliances which would in any way interfere with your purpose to serve the whole State."